NOTICE TO DEFENDANT/JUDGMENT DEBTOR
ON HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS

The attached post-judgment process has been issued on request of the United States of America.

Federal law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken, and these laws may be applicable. Such property is said to be exempted. The attached Claim for Exemption Form/Notice of Consumer Credit Protection Act Form lists the exemptions under federal law.

There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If you claim any exemption(s), you must (1) fill out the attached Claim for Exemption Form/Notice of Consumer Credit Protection Act Form and (2) hand deliver, or mail via first class mail, the original form to (a) Clerk of Court, 700 Stewart Street, Lobby Level, Seattle, WA 98101, and a copy to (b) United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington, Assistant United States Attorney Anastasia Bartlett, Attn: Financial Litigation Unit, 700 Stewart Street, Suite 5220, Seattle, WA 98101, with your Request for Hearing Form. This must be done within twenty (20) days of the receipt of the Notice to Defendant/Judgment Debtor, from the Clerk, United States District Court. You have a right to a hearing within five (5) business days, or as soon as practicable, from the date you file your claim with the court.

If the United States of America as creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, the method of computing the amount of wages which are exempt from garnishment by law is indicated on the Claim for Exemption Form / Notice of Consumer Credit Protection Act Form, which is attached. You do not need to file a claim to receive this exemption, but if you believe the wrong amount is being withheld, you may file a claim for exemption.

If you request exemptions, you will be notified of the hearing date, as required. On the day of the hearing, you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempted, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights.

It may be helpful to you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.
